They Are Your Brothers and Sisters—
Children of God!

You are busy—you are an important fellow in your affairs—you are an average mortal. Sympathetic? Certainly! Righteous? Of course! Tolerant?—Surely, if it does not interfere too much with your pleasure and comforts.

But you know that there are others, not so fortunate as you, who are deserving of your tolerance. Poor souls who bravely struggle through a clouded existence, deprived of physical luxuries and conveniences, as well as actual necessities—yet they go on in face of the bitterest conditions, tolerant and courageous and thankful for the right to live and to have the privilege of devotion to God.

Your whole life may be materially changed and you may enjoy a new born happiness by regular attendance at Church. It is there you meet your brothers and sisters. It is there you enjoy the re-unions of the Family of God. You owe yourself the happiness of these contacts, the privilege of letting others enjoy the help your presence may be to them. Money is not all—the privilege of meeting and being with others who appreciate their God will bring you genuine happiness.

(Come to Church—Give your Brothers and Sisters—Children of God—the happiness of companionship.)
